

Thanksgiving 2022

“Give Thanks...But To Whom?”

Psalm 105:1-7

Mental health experts are promoting g_____ as a means to better mental health.

“Gratitude helps people refocus on what they h_____ instead of what they l_____.”

What is often missing, though, is the o_____ of gratitude.

The Whom of Gratitude

Psalm 105:1 - “Give thanks to the L_____; call on His n_____.”

Yahweh, used five times here, is the c_____ name of God.

Psalm 105:3 - Worship is to “g_____ in His holy name.”

Worship is not something we f_____; worship is something we d_____.

The Why of Gratitude

Psalm 105:1, 2, 5 - We give thanks for all that God has d_____.

Psalm 105:7 - We thank God for who He i_____. This is considered a “higher note” because it keeps worship from being s_____, and it worships God when we may not see Him at w_____.

The When of Gratitude

1 Thessalonians 5:18 - “Give thanks in all c_____.”

We are to give thanks i_____ all situations, not f_____ all situations!

“All” in that verse means no e_____, no e_____, and no e_____. This is r_____ gratitude.

Philippians 4:6 - We are to give thanks when we p_____, not just when our prayers are a_____. This takes f_____!

Philippians 4:7 - When we have an “attitude of gratitude,” we will have p_____ of mind—improved mental health!
